Baby Blessings

Some Words from me

If you are reading this page, you may be expecting a child or you may already have been blessed with the arrival of your baby. Congratulations to you and your family!! Welcoming a child into your family is one of the most wonderful events that you will ever experience in your lifetime. As an Ordained Interfaith Minister, I can design a special heart-warming ceremony that welcomes your baby into your family while also blessing and naming the child.

If you and your spouse are of different religions I beautifully weave your different customs together to create a special and memorable ceremony.

I can create a very spiritual, non-denominational loving ceremony.

If you are the same religion and would like the baby to be baptized, I can perform a baptism at your home or party venue.

A part of the process is that we get to know each other so that the ceremony reflects the warmth of our friendship. We create a ceremony where the family members (immediate and extended) are involved, as I bless and name the baby.

If you are expecting your child soon, please call so that we can meet beforehand and plan the ceremony
